National Guard Association of Texas

MESSAGE FROM THE NGAT PRESIDENT

Welcome to the 67th Annual NGAT Conference! We're thrilled to welcome you to an exciting weekend filled with informative updates, engaging activities, and a chance to connect with fellow members. We deeply appreciate your continued support of the National Guard Association of Texas.

Don't Miss These Special Events:

- * Golf Tournament: Support the NGAT Educational Foundation by participating in the annual tournament at Cottonwood Creek Golf Course.
- * 5K Fun Run/Walk: Come enjoy a leisure run/walk alongside the Brazos River on Friday morning.
- * Wine Tasting: Delight your senses with savory wines paired with inspired bites at the Convention Center
- * License to Carry Certification Class: Take advantage of this valuable learning opportunity.

Get Ready to Mingle and Celebrate:

- * Ribbon Cutting Ceremony: Join us on Friday at 1:00 PM as we welcome our esteemed Corporate Partners and celebrate their contributions.
- * Exhibitor Reception: Mingle with exhibitors and discover their offerings at the "No Host Reception" on Friday, 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm, featuring complimentary beer.
- * NGAT Silent Auction: Bid on exciting items like getaways, entertainment tickets, and more! All proceeds benefit the Texas National Guard Foundation. Bidding closes on Saturday at 2:45 pm.
- * Welcome Party: Enjoy a lively evening filled with delicious food, beverage and dancing. Participate in the NGAT Scavenger Hunt and meet our committee chairs during the event.

Stay Informed and Engaged:

- * NGAT Resolutions Update: Join the NGAT Resolutions Committee to learn the resolutions process in conjunction with how NGAT Government Affairs supports our Texas Guardsmen and hear the resolutions that will be presented and discussed at the annual meeting Saturday morning.
- * Annual Meeting: Delegates, your presence is crucial at the Association Annual Meeting on Saturday morning. Get to know what your Association is doing for you and vote on proposed bylaw amendments.
- * General Session: Join us for informative presentations from our guest speakers, MG (Ret) Francis McGinn and BG Carrie Perez. We will also announce the NGAT Educational Foundation scholarship winners and receive updates from the Texas Military Department. Enjoy coffee and breakfast snacks with our Corporate Partners before the session.
- * Awards Banquet: Celebrate the achievements of fellow NGAT members and event winners at the banquet on Saturday night. Come wearing a little bit of country or deck out wearing denim and diamonds to glam it up. Expect boots, sparkles, and a whole lot of fun!
- * Prayer Breakfast: Conclude the conference on a reflective note with a prayer service led by (CH) MAJ Milton Gutierrez of the 176th Engineer Brigade.

Join us for the Conference After Action Review following the prayer breakfast! This session offers valuable insights into the conference and helps us make needed improvements for the future.

Your continued support of our association is deeply appreciated. We look forward to sharing the positive progress we've made in improving our services for everyone. On behalf of the NGAT Board of Directors, we hope that you have an enjoyable and productive time as you take in all our conference has to offer.

COL (Ret) Paul Cerniasukas
NGAT President

WELCOME TO WACO, TEXAS

Alive with charm and rich in history, Waco blends small-town warmth with growing cultural energy, making it one of Central Texas's most inviting destinations. With scenic surroundings along the Brazos River and a community full of pride and spirit, it's no surprise that Waco continues to attract visitors from across the country.

Fun is easy to find in the Heart of Texas. Waco offers a welcoming mix of attractions, from its evolving food scene and locally owned shops to its unique landmarks like Magnolia Market at the Silos and the fascinating Waco Mammoth National Monument. Whether you're exploring outdoor spaces, browsing artisan goods, or diving into local history, there's something here for everyone.

Thousands of visitors travel to Waco each year for leisure, events, and to experience its distinctive character. What they discover is a friendly and vibrant city that blends heritage with modern appeal. From lively downtown spots and boutique shopping to peaceful parks and riverside views, Waco offers a little bit of everything for every kind of traveler.

Not sure where to start? Visit the city's official tourism site, Destination Waco to plan your trip. The site features helpful guides, local events, and travel ideas to make the most of your time in Waco.

While you're here, enjoy Waco's growing arts and culture scene, sample a variety of restaurants serving everything from classic Texas barbecue to global cuisine, or catch a game featuring the Baylor Bears. You can also spend time shopping in charming local districts or simply relax and take in the laid-back atmosphere that makes Waco such a memorable destination.

National Guard Association of Texas Guest Speakers

MG (Ret) Francis M. McGinn

As President of NGAUS, General McGinn serves as the National Guard's chief advocate in Washington, D.C., providing unified representation before Congress on issues impacting readiness, modernization, benefits, and quality of life for Guardsmen across all 54 states, territories, and the District of Columbia.

With more than four decades of service—beginning as an enlisted Soldier and culminating as a general officer—General McGinn brings a perspective grounded in operational experience and informed by daily engagement at the strategic level. enter of critical policy discussions, from equipment modernization and force structure to medical readiness and Guard authorities.

BG Carrie Perez

The National Guard Association of Texas is proud to welcome Brigadier General Carrie Perez, Director of Army Personnel Management (G-1), National Guard Bureau, as a featured speaker during the Saturday General Session on March 28 at the 67th Annual NGAT Conference.

As a Texas Guardsman serving at the national level, Brigadier General Perez brings insight into Army National Guard personnel priorities and the issues shaping the future of our force.
